SUBMISSION: APPEARED CASE SABOTAGE PERTAINING TO MISREPRESENTATION OF TITLE

CASSANDRA JOHNSON-LANDRY, Debtor currently submits communication and letter sent by CSC. It is very obvious there is a hidden agenda and Debtor, KNOWS this was not made in error. Debtor is not an Attorney was BAR NUMBER to practice the study of Law. Debtor represents herself as Pro Se. Ironically Debtor KNOWS exactly why this language is being used such as MISREPRESENTATION. Also, based on a previous phone conversation Debtor was very aware of the conversation being recorded and manipulated to fit what appears to be a passive aggressive scenario. When an individual acts on his own behalf during a legal action, rather than through an attorney, he is considered to be a pro se litigant. This Latin term literally means advocating on ones own behalf. In all jurisdictions in the United States, an individual is allowed to represent himself, whether as the plaintiff or defendant in a civil lawsuit, or as the defendant in a criminal case. To explore this concept, consider the following pro se definition. (EXHIBIT A)
